Bangalore 8th June 1899.

Sir

The eleventh class of musketry for I. S. Troops will assemble at the central school, Meerut, on 10th October 1899, and will be dismissed on or about 30th November 1899.

The class will be composed as follows:—

Cavalry officers	10
" N.C. officers	10
Infantry officers	10
N.C. officers	10
Total	40

A place has been apportioned to one officer from the Mysore S. Lancers.

If the Mysore Government wish to nominate an officer to this class, I would ask you kindly to send me his name at an early date.

All officers and non-commissioned officers attending the class are expected to be thoroughly conversant with the following subjects before joining at Meerut.

1) Carbine arms and ammunition

(b) Firing exercise.

(c) Aiming drill.

An examination in the above subjects will be held a week after the class assembles, and any one failing to qualify will render himself liable to be returned to his regiment.
